PROHIBITION ORATOR AT THE PLAZA—Charles J. Hall, the prohibition speaker, will address the people at the east side of the city hall, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He has publicly promised to answer any questions about the liquor problem that are asked him. The meeting is under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.
HERE FROM ARLINGTON—Wil-ham Fitzpatrick, a director of the board of the Arlington school district, was in town yesterday to hold confer with County School Superintendent Higgins. A $5,000 schoolhouse is being put up in the Arlington district and the business connected therewith is keeping Mr. Fitzpatrick busy.

OUTLET FOR ARIZONA COTTON —A cablegram was received yesterday by President Charles Waterhouse of the Egyptian Cotton Growers' association from W. S. Dorman at Liverpool, saying: "Just closed good outlet deal here.
Selling Saturday." Mr. Dorman some weeks ago in company with representatives of the department of agriculture went to Europe to make known the qualities of Arizona long staple cotton and to establish a market for it there.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination to the office of SHERIFF OF MARICOPA COUNTY Subject to the action of the DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES
JEFF D. ADAMS.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for judge of the superior court of Maricopa county at the Republican Primary, Sept. 8, 1914.
PAUL RENAUGLES

ON VACATION—Clay Leonard, clerk of the supreme court, left last night for San Francisco for a month's vacation.

AT SANTA MONICA—W. D. Palmer has joined his family in Santa Monica. They will return in six weeks.

DISMISSED—The case against Ar-turro Cruz and Ynez Durano, charged at the instance of Ramon Durano, husband of Ynez Durano, with misconduct, was dismissed in Judge Parker's court yesterday.

BACK FROM NEW YORK—Mrs. C.
B. Palmer and family returned from New York where they have spent the summer. Dr. Palmer returned some time ago and has been awaiting the coming of his family since.

NEW ARIZONIAN—Mr. and Mrs.
Alfred Valenzuela of 918 East Jefferson street are the proud parents of a handsome son who arrived at the home yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. Mr. Valenzuela is the proprietor of the El Paso store on East Washington street.

PICKENS FOR MESA CONSTABLE
—O. L. Pickens has filed his nomination petition and papers with the clerk of the board of supervisors, to enter as a candidate at the primary elections, for the office of constable of the Mesa precinct. Mr. Pickens is a staunch democrat.

MATRIMONIAL—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to James Walter Boyd and Madge Books Sanchez, both of Maricopa; Herbert Hocker, of Gila, and Vera L. Scott, of Detroit, Michigan, and to Castora Burrola and Caborca Dolores Alvarez, both Maricopans.

HUNT COUNTY ADVOCATE—George W. Harben, the Williams attorney, and one of the hardest advocates for the proposed Hunt county during the last legislature was in the city yesterday having come down from the north to spend two or three days in the capital city.

BRINGING THEM WEST—Colonist fares, will be in effect via Santa Fe September 24 to October 8 inclusive, from Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Memphis and points west.
The come as just spring. Fares from points east of those gateways will be substantially the same as last season.

GOING EAST—Mr. and Mrs. F. I.
Wilson, of the south side, will leave for Michigan Monday, August 3, returning about the middle of September. They will visit friends and relatives in Detroit, Jackson, Ann Arbor, and Ypsilanti. Enroute they expect to spend a week among the Colorado Rockies.

SADDLE THIEF CAUGHT—Tom Ellis, on whose trail Constable John Rudd of Glendale has been for some time, because of the general belief that Ellis was connected with the mysterious disappearance of certain saddles, was rounded up by Sheriff Adams yesterday and is now reposing in the county jail awaiting an examining trial.

BACK FROM VACATION—W.
Paul Geary, chairman of the corporation commission, returned yesterday after a month's vacation, during which time he attended the Elks convention at Denver. On his way home, Mr. Geary took a short camping trip in Apache county, and reports the cattle ranges in and around St. Johns as in most excellent condition, and the cattle and sheep men as jubilant.

TO THE GRAND CANYON—Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Clemens, of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, will leave Monday evening for the Grand Canyon and northern points. Mr. Clemens will be absent about ten days, but Mrs. Clemens will go to Muncie and Indianapolis, to spend the remainder of the summer with relatives.

THE RESPONSE OF THE LADIES
—The ladies have made an admirable response to the special invitation to register, 209 having added their names to the list. In an effort to stimulate registration among the fair ones Saturday was set apart as a special invitation day, and the doors of the office remained open until late into the evening. Throughout the day the officers were kept busy, with a result that surpassed all expectations. The two-hundred mark was but a hope, so satisfaction is felt over the response.

TRADES WHISKEY TO INDIAN—Anchona Lopez, a Mexican, was caught red-handed trading whiskey to an Indian yesterday. The change of hands from the Mexican to the Indian of three bottles of whiskey in the alley at the back of Hans Herlick saloon was observed by a passer-by, and the men were at once cut off from retreat by Chief Officer Brisbois, who took them in hand, turning them over to the county jail. In the afternoon Lopez was arraigned before Judge Parker, and his case was held over to the federal court, bond being fixed at $200.

FIRED WHILE IT LASTED—The fire department responded promptly yesterday evening at seven o'clock to a call from the Golden Rule Chop House on West Adams street. The fire had its origin in the oven of a large range where some beef suet had been placed to be rendered and was forgotten. It caught fire and the flames were communicated to the outside of the range and followed the stack to the ceiling.
But for the quick work of the department the building would soon have been in flames. As it turned out comparatively little damage was done. The Chop House will again be open for business on Monday.

HAGEMAN DIVORCE CASE SET-TLED—Judge Phillips this week signed a decree of absolute divorce finally separating George and Laura Belle Hageman and giving Mrs.
Hageman her former name, Mrs.
Laura Belle Gardner, by which she will now be known. The case has been prominently before the public for some time. At first George Hage-man sued for divorce but after the case has been hanging for some time an agreement was reached whereby Mrs. Hageman should sue and obtain the separation. In accordance with the allegations of her petition she has been granted her former name.

HON. WILEY JONES WANTS TO BE AGAIN A CANDIDATE

Is Trying to Get Into Field for Attorney Generalship

Hon. Wiley Jones yearns for war.
Sometime ago he was appointed assistant United States attorney for the federal district of Arizona, but the position, while a good one, de-bars him from entering neck and crop into the coming Arizona state election. It is the desire to fight that is in the blood of Hon. Wiley that has led him to aspire to the office of attorney general of the state, but he cannot do this unless he first have and obtain the consent of the department of justice.
The rumors of his candidacy have been going the rounds so strong, and the jokes, that are being hurled at the devoted head of the former presidential elector, have been of such a stinging nature that Mr.
Jones yesterday telegraphed the department of justice for the required consent, and is now awaiting developments.

He refused to be interviewed, but said incidentally that he will have plenty to say about all and sundry if he is permitted to go out and "git" votes for himself, and he will be on the firing line for keeps.

SOME SUMMERING ARIZONIANS

Mrs. George F. Cooke, of Arlington, wife of Hon. George F. Cooke, of the first legislature, is spending two months at 240 East Fifth street, Riverside, California.
A. J. Moritz, of 806 North Eighth avenue, is home again from an enjoyable visit to the Garden of Allah.
F. J. Dourson, of 1229 West Madison street has gone to Avalon, Cal., to spend his summer vacation on Catalina island. He expects to catch a big sea bass before he returns.

Hiram Mars, of Glendale, has been traveling this summer. He has gone again this time to 571 East North street, Galesburg, Ill.

Dr. O. C. Bartlett, of the state entological laboratories is back at his desk again after a short vacation spent in the neighborhood of Prescott.
General Secretary Harry M. Blair of the Y. M. C. A., has returned from his trip east and has since gone to the Catalina islands with Mrs. Blair and the family, where he will dip his toes in the briny every day for a spell.

Mrs. A. G. Cate is at Flagstaff.
Mrs. Helen Bury, is at 171 Buena Vista avenue, San Francisco, and is enjoying a fine vacation.

J. M. Clinton, while still traveling, was located recently at the Y. M.
C. A. camp at Estes Park, Colo.

E. C. Kahrs, of 248 West Jefferson street, will spend his vacation in Los Angeles. His address there will be 150 West Pico street.

George Pierson, of 205 North Ninth street, this city, is going to spend one month on his ranch near Florence. Mrs. Pierson will accompany him.

Nearly everyone is going out but Venne's coming back. Peter A.
Venne will soon be back at the Indian school from the Haskell Institute at Lawrence, Kansas.

Emily Schaefer, of Mesa, leaves to spend his vacation at Ocean Park.
Dr. Wm. Lentz, of North Central avenue, will spend the summer at Ocean Park.

NEXT SEASON'S BUICK LINE WILL BE BEAUTY

There is coming a beautiful line of 1915 Buicks for the local trade, but so well has Agent Will Catlin prepared, some of the first shipments will remain long on the salesroom floor.

On a list, kept posted in the office, Catlin is marking up the names of those who are buying new Buicks. Now the list includes: H. J. McClung, the banker; J. T. Olsen, a contractor; G.
W. Drews, L. B. Snow, L. C. Morton and the Union Oil company.

RETURNING FROM PRESCOTT—A. B. Ming, county assessor of Yuma county was in the city last evening on his way home from the state tax convention which has been held in the Mile High City for the past week.
He said the sessions of the convention were exceptionally interesting and will doubtless redound to great good to the state.

NEW FORD PRICE LIST HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED

Edward Rudolph, local agent for the Ford cars has announced a new style of selling, by which the Fordsters of his territory are to get the benefit of a reduction in price, which followed the factory's new profit sharing plan. From now on Ford's will cost in Phoenix:

Model T touring car, $565.
Model T runabout, $515.
Casting up the figures on a basis of the 200,000 cars Henry Ford expects to market next season, this will mean a saving of fifteen millions to the buying public.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 14, 1913.

I have just returned from Phoenix, where we planted 4000 Cacti, and for your information will state I saw no dead ones at all and each plant had from Three to Eight big, thrifty leaves on it, and we are very much pleased with the proposition. We will want more in the near future.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) R. P. DAVIE, President.

Above were set on the company's plantation near Glendale, Ariz.
Later, Mr. Davie stated he had about 32,000 increase from these 4000 plants for spring setting, or 8 per plant.
